These notes from my diary were never intended for publication, although most of the book has appeared, in one form or another, in the Presbyterian Messenger. Missionary enterprise in Morocco must always be twofold, as we have to combat with Mohammedanism and Judaism. In a country where there is no security to life or property our work is necessarily fraught with many difficulties. At present the country is but partially opened; yet, with a knowledge of medicine, however small, access can be gained to many homes and hearts, which would be otherwise impossible. Nevertheless we have formidable opponents in the Moorish government, and a class of fanatics, called shereefs, supposed to be in the direct lineage of the Prophet. But as the Lord said unto Zerubbabel, so says He unto us: Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord of Hosts (Zech. iv. 6). If God be for us, who can be against us (Rom. viii. 31). Some writers speak of the benign influence which Mohammedanism exerts over its followers; but during a close observance of seven years I have failed to see it.
