Reviews

This pdf is definitely not easy to get started on studying but quite entertaining to read through. I am quite late in start reading this one, but better then never. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Not illustrated. 1900 Excerpt: . believe that he must of necessity always be in the wrong--let us make it as easy as possible for him to be in the right. What is true in the home and in social life will be true in business life and interests as well; for the life that is actuated by an earnest optimism will carry its sunlight wherever it may go. If the Easter spirit has been truly absorbed, and renewed life sings its music to the soul, the days and the nights, the weeks and months, which follow will shine with a brighter light, because, more than light of sun or moon, it is the reflection from within which makes the way of our earthly pilgrimage bright or gloomy; and as it seems to us, so will it seem by sympathy to those with whom we associate, for as a man thinketh, so is he. Good Things to Come THE many good things in the culinary department of the present number of Good Housekeeping soften somewhat our disappointment at inability to begin in this issue the promised specialties from Miss Nellie Dot Ranche, unavoidably postponed until May. In the mean time, readers will be interested to know something regarding the methods and manner of work of this young woman, whose skill as a demonstrator at Food Fairs and Exhibitions during the past three years has made her name famous throughout the country--more especially in the central and western sections. To quote her...
