

Observations: Life with God (Paperback)

By Paul a Griffin

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 198 x 129 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Life is full of surprises, ups and downs, slipping and sliding. Through it all, God can be found and trusted. Griffin offers observations from his own life as a father, a devoted husband, a teacher, and a motorcycle and camping enthusiast. If you have ever wondered where God is, Griffin shows us with a straight-forward style, giving heartfelt insights to the reader. The reader will enjoy the very personal accounts of the struggles and joys experienced by the author in his journey to God. Observe and know that God can be found. In the deepest of nights, and the brightest of days, our Lord can be found. His love and forgiveness, strength and courage can be ours. We are not alone, fending for ourselves in this world of uncertainties, but God is with us. Griffin has taught for twenty-seven years in both public and private school settings. His students have ranged in age from first grade to twelfth grade. He currently lives in northeastern Minnesota near the beautiful shores of Lake Superior where he works at the public...
