Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1999. N.A. Book Condition: New. xxi + 115pp This book on Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and the revolutionary farmer leader Comrade Mao Tse-Tung offers a very interesting, qualitative and comparative study. Sardar and Mao worked for the progress of farming community, awoke its consciousness, and contributed effectively to the freedom struggle of their respective countries?India and China. The author has traced out amazing and significant similarities between India and China which exist among the peasants of these countries, their backwardness, poverty, illiteracy, suspicions and mistrusts, exploitation by the landlords, misconduct and high-handed treatment by the capitalists and businessmen, threats of the dacoits and robbers and vices of liquor and other addictions etc. Oppressed and poor farmers, who form the economic backbone of both the countries faced inhuman treatment of bonded labour. The open saga of their suffering has been thoroughly brought to light by the author. This interesting book which combines the political science with contemporary historical facts will be useful to all those interested in the subject and add to the tremendous source of knowledge for the benefit of Historians, Agrarian Reformers, Biographers and Political Scientists.
