These poems are special thoughts that have been locked away for many years. And now it is time for me to unleash them and to be share with others. With love, hope, and faith there will be healing, all across the world. And that you may feel with your heart and spirit as well as reading with your eyes. The inspiration of my poetry came from situations in my life and how I overcame optical with the revelation from God and to give me the faith, hope, strength, and true love that I needed to press on in my daily life, also for my family. I realize that God is my best friend and He kept me sane when I had no one to hold me up. I was on the edge of a nerves break down but God is the one and only that healed my mind and gave me the revelation...
