Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Story of Chicago and National Development 1534-1910 This little book has been prepared by several hands as a text to be used by educators in teaching the things of the middle West, particularly Chicago. Mrs. Atkinson, the author of the original, produced a charming story for boys and girls and won many friends in their ranks as well as among educators all over the United States. We have had many requests for the story in book form. In response to repeated requests we ran the story a second time in our magazine, The World's Chronicle. Now we meet the further demands and present it in book form. The editors of The World's Chronicle have worked over most of the details in an attempt to bring the story down to date. The whirl of events in the city are such that ink hardly dries on an article on Chicago before the writing becomes out of date because of the march of events. We have almost despaired of giving figures for anything in this book because the figures of good things grow so rapidly over night. Yet we have persisted in giving them, trusting to our ability to revise as time goes on, and believing the schools need the figures of this year now and that orders will come for revised editions every year. We plan to sell out our editions fast enough to keep the story ever new and true. Special thanks are due to The Chicago Association of Commerce for data supplied, to the city archivist, to the librarian of the Chicago Historical Society, and to many individuals who have assisted us in...
