Centaueus Et Crux--The Centaur and the Cross. This constellation is represented in the lower section of Map No. XIII., the circle of 13 hoars of Right Ascension being the central line. The Centaur is represented on the globe as a monster, half man and half horse, with-shield and spear, attacking the Wolf in his front. This constellation contains 35 discernible stars, including 5 in the Cross, which is often spoken of as a separate constellation. The Centaur lies South of the tail of Hydra, Southwest of Libra and Scorpio, East of Argo, West of Ara, and East of the 12 hour circle; x Centauri and ft Lupi, both of the 3rd magnitude, and 1...
